

Certificate of Tree Planting

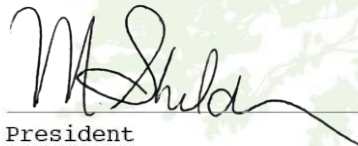

To date, 4 tree seedlings have been planted on behalf of

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

Together we are helping give families the ability to transition from unsustainable farming techniques to a Forest Garden system. Farmers transform their land with ecologically appropriate trees and dozens of crops, breaking the cycle of climate change and generational poverty while rebuilding our food systems from the ground up.

Our tree planting program addresses the following United Nations Sustainable Development Goals:

President

06/08/2022

Date

TREES FOR THE FUTURE