

Have you applied for a grant
even though your program is very small?

What were the driving factors?

Have you ever applied and not received a grant?

What did you learn for future attempts?

How have you tried to sway your hesitant organization to apply for a grant?

Have you been able to move the needle?

This is an unprecedented time for grant opportunities. Where have you searched for grants?

Do you feel comfortable searching grants.gov?

